OVERVIEW

4 bedroom renovated masia | Private swimming pool | Independent annex buildings | 20 hectares private land | Beautiful views | Tranquil, private location with easy access

Originally dating from the 17th Century, this beautiful Alt Emporda country house to buy is located in an idyllic setting with beautiful mountain views, just 15km north of Figueres and only 14km south of the French border.

Originally renovated by the current owners in 1995, with further renovations in 2007 and 2012, the property is set in 20 hectares of private land with beautiful views to the Spanish Pyrenees and offers complete tranquility and privacy.

The property comprises a 4-bedroom main house, a separate annex building (currently used as garden storage but with potential to be converted into additional accommodation), a further barn, a swimming pool and a lovely walled patio.

The masia has been renovated to a good standard, maintaining the rustic charm of the original building whilst offering all the comforts of modern living.

The property is supplied by mains electricity and the water is from a private well.

The masia is just a few kilometres from the nearest village of Agullana and only 35km from the nearest beaches of the Costa Brava.
