OVERVIEW

This 4-bedroom property offers a fabulous location being on one of the main shopping streets in the area, in 50's style building with excellent facilities and installations

Arriving to this building after walking through the lively street of Goya in Madrid centre, you come to a sumptuous entrance hall with an authentic setting and security/concierge service.

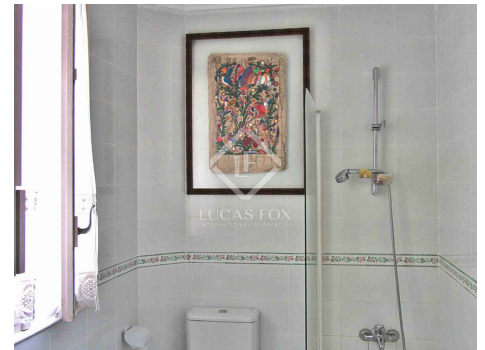

The apartment is of traditional Madrileño architecture, with living areas looking onto the street through floor to ceiling windows, and bedrooms running alongside a corridor, with the kitchen at the end.

This kitchen is large and comes fully-equipped with plenty of storage space and a handy work space.

The property can be considered as a good home for a family or as a fantastic renovation project opportunity.

Ceilings are high and light flows throughout the whole property, from south to north.

Outside, a stone's throw away, you can find the Goya metro station, bus stops, the popular Corte Ingles superstore and many more popular retail and restaurant businesses.
