OVERVIEW

This beautiful property near the village of Campanet would make an ideal renovation project and offers numerous original features dating back more than 500 years. Secluded and private

This exceptional property for sale in North Mallorca is situated in some of the island's most beautiful countryside close to the picturesque village of Campanet and its famous caves. Dating back to the 15th Century, this would make a fantastic renovation project and it still maintains many of its original features.

The main house offers plenty of space and is surrounded by a large plot ideal for horses. Some of the outbuildings could be converted into guest cottages, whilst others would make excellent stables.
