OVERVIEW

A spacious three bedroom town house with stunning views of Guincho beach and the Atlantic Ocean, close to Cascais

A spacious three bedroom town house with stunning views of Guincho beach and the Atlantic Ocean and close to the centre of Cascais.

The house is divided over three floors and has a wonderful distribution of space. The large living room is flooded with natural light and has direct access onto a private terrace. There is a fully fitted kitchen with the added advantage of a separate utility / laundry room. The good sized dining room has double doors which lead onto a large private terrace and then down to the secluded communal pool.

The upper floor has the master suite with a complete en suite bathroom and fitted wardrobes. There are also two further double bedrooms and a family bathroom.

The house also has a closed garage for two cars and plenty of storage space

The property has the use of a communal swimming pool and the development also has a world class Spa. The grounds have been sympathetically landscaped to make the most of the natural surroundings.

The development is in a fantastic location with stunning views of the Atlantic ocean and the hills of Sintra. The world famous Guincho beach is only a ten minute walk away and is a draw for windsurfers, kite surfers and sun worshippers alike. There are also many high quality sea front restaurants, many in cliff top locations providing a unique dining experience. There are five 18 hole golf courses in close proximity which can easily compete with the best that the Algarve has to offer.

The fashionable fishing town and marina of Cascais is a ten minute drive away. Lisbon international airport is thirty minutes by car and there is also a very good train link from Cascais to Lisbon.

This is a fantastic home offering great value for money in a truly wonderful location and will also offer good rental returns.
