OVERVIEW

Unique property converted into 3 apartments with a valid tourist rental licence in the centre of Madrid, between the Cortes and Embajadores neighbourhoods.

These 3 tourist apartments are located in a building that can be used entirely for this type of activity, with a legally granted licence.

The apartments are located on the interior-facing side of the building, overlooking a large block patio with lots of light and tranquility. The layout of each of them is of 2 bedrooms (with the possibility of obtaining a third bedroom due to the fact that the living room area is quite spacious), 2 complete bathrooms, a living room, and a fully equipped kitchen with the capacity to accommodate up to 8 people. The renovation carried out, is of a fairly high quality for this type of accommodation. All homes have a flat-screen TV and air conditioning.

The entire property covers a built area of 215 m² with access to a 3 m² terrace and access to 3 patios. There is also a public car park and a restaurant in the same building.

The opinions of Booking and Expedia clients give the highest score, and the occupancy has been 22 days on average, with a turnover that reaches € 12,640 per month with a rate of about € 200 per night, with the possibility to generate 7% profit.
