Magnificent property in Almagro, completely renovated with a parking space on the building.

Magnificent property in Almagro, completely renovated with a parking space on the building.

On one of Almagro's most elegant and iconic streets, this exceptional high-end property combines the classic sophistication of Chamberí with contemporary comfort. With a generous 400 square meters of property space, this residence has been completely renovated with top-quality materials and an interior design conceived for those who seek excellence in every detail.

The spacious main living room, dominated by large windows, offers incomparable light and unobstructed views that fill the spaces with harmony and serenity. The private south-facing terrace becomes a perfect urban oasis to enjoy the sun and the leisurely pace of one of Madrid's most distinguished neighborhoods.

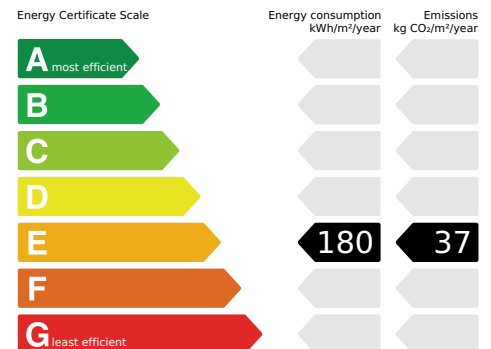

The property is located in a stately building built in 1957, perfectly maintained and equipped with concierge and security services, enhancing the privacy and well-being of its residents. The fluid layout of the property enhances the spaciousness of the rooms, creating an elegant and functional atmosphere that combines open social areas with more intimate spaces designed for relaxation.

The property includes a parking space in the building itself, with the option to purchase or rent additional spaces, as well as a storage room ideal for additional storage. The result is a property that combines history and modernity, offering a residential experience that meets the most demanding standards of the luxury market.
