Magnificent property in Chamberí, completely renovated, with a parking space.

Magnificent property in Chamberí, completely renovated, with a parking space.

Magnificent property in one of the most exclusive areas of the Chamberí district, specifically on the prestigious Santa Cruz de Marcenado street, a privileged location that combines residential essence with convenient access to Madrid's key points.

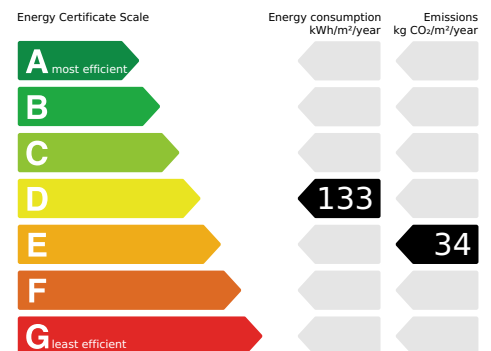

This spacious and bright 245 m² apartment features three generous bedrooms and four full bathrooms, designed to offer maximum comfort and privacy. Its dual north-south orientation ensures exceptional natural light and cross-ventilation, providing a quality of life for its residents. The terrace and balcony are perfect spaces for enjoying the urban surroundings in complete privacy.

A parking space is included in the price, an essential feature in this central location. The property, located in a 1975 building, is excellently maintained—as evidenced by a favorable technical inspection in 2021—and features gas central heating and built-in wardrobes to optimize storage. Furthermore, the building features accessible access for people with reduced mobility, two modern elevators, and a concierge service that provide security and exclusivity to the complex.
