Exclusive Family Home with a Heated Swimming Pool and Private Garden in Fuente del Fresno

DILS LUCAS FOX PRESENTS

A unique property that combines the charm of rustic-inspired architecture with the latest home automation technologies, offering a perfect balance between warmth, functionality and comfort.

The property features a comprehensive home automation system that allows remote control of the alarm, heating, blinds, door access, and other systems. All windows have been replaced with high-performance frames and double glazing, ensuring excellent thermal and acoustic insulation. Furthermore, all rooms, including the kitchen and entrance hall, have air conditioning, complemented by an efficient heating system.

The exterior is one of the property's greatest attractions. The garden, spread over several levels, has been designed for enjoying both leisure and outdoor living. The pool area features a spectacular heated pool with a hydromassage area, waterfalls, and a fun water slide. Above, there is a large lawn, ideal for games, family gatherings, or outdoor events. On the lower level, children can enjoy a large trampoline, swings, and a private zip line, transforming the garden into a true entertainment hub.

This is an exceptional property, hard to find on the market, ideal for families seeking spaciousness, privacy, technology, and a high quality of life in a privileged residential setting. The owners wish to find tenants who will value the property as much as they have and care for it with the same affection during their room.

Property tax and community fees included in the rent.

Supplies and gardening expenses not included.
