OVERVIEW

Finca in natural surroundings with sea views for sale a few minutes from Barcelona. For more details, see the virtual tour.

Unique opportunity to acquire a historic finca with two large houses, with a large area of land and surrounded by nature. It is an area with total peace and tranquility, less than 45 minutes from Barcelona and 10 minutes from the nearest beach.

The main house has nine bedrooms, six bathrooms, three living rooms and several fireplaces in use. Additionally, there is an area with spectacular views of the countryside that has a beautiful garden, large swimming pool, large porch with chill-out area, kitchen, barbecue and changing rooms.

A second construction is made up of an independent house with three bedrooms and a very large garage, as well as some old stables. All of this could be made into a nice guest house and still provide plenty of storage space.

The house was last renovated in the 1970's, therefore it requires a complete renovation and is the perfect opportunity for someone looking for a housing project with a lot of potential.

The estate enjoys beautiful views of the mountains and the sea from the top of the watchtower. The charming garden is full of mature fruit trees, to which is added a leafy forest area with a wide variety of trees including cedars, holm oaks, cork oaks, walnut trees and strawberry trees, among others. It also has a large terraced area next to the stables area, suitable for a vegetable garden.

It would be a fantastic home for a large family who wants to live the incredible lifestyle that the Maresme coast offers, with its beaches, picturesque Mediterranean villages, golf courses and international schools. In addition, it is well connected with the Costa Brava and the city of Barcelona.
