OVERVIEW

Impressive 171 m<sup>2</sup> apartment on the seafront, with panoramic views of the port of Mataró and the Mediterranean Sea for sale in Mataró. More details in the virtual tour.

Lucas Fox presents this beautiful apartment located just in front of the port of Mataró, with fantastic views of the sea. It was renovated two years ago using the highest quality materials, giving it a modern and calm atmosphere. From the porcelain floor with a parquet effect from the Porcelanosa brand to the Neff appliances .

As soon as we enter, we perceive the luminosity of the property, since all the rooms are exterior. To the left, there is an study that can also function as a double bedroom . On the same side, there is another bedroom that has been set up as a large dressing room. On the right hand side, there is a spacious bathroom with shower and, just in front, another double bedroom . In the same corridor we also find the laundry room, in which there is more than enough space for the washing machine, the dryer and the thermos. These three double bedrooms offer unobstructed views of the building's community garden and have no neighbors in front of them.

Walking to the end of the corridor, to the left, there is a spacious living room-kitchen that has access to a large balcony with impressive panoramic views that will leave anyone speechless. Next to the living room, there is the main bedroom with a full bathroom that also has access to the balcony. From the bedroom itself, you can enjoy the sea views while lying in bed.

Finally, the property benefits from a parking space on the same building, so when you get home, you will not have to waste time looking for parking. As the parking lot is on the same building , you can get to the property by lift .

It should be noted that the building has a solar panel installation on the roof, which provides renewable energy to the floor.

This apartment is ideal for those who are looking for peace and quiet, but at the same time want to be close to shops and the beach. It offers a privileged location that combines the tranquility of the environment with the convenience of having nearby amenities .
