OVERVIEW

Manor house from 1886 for sale in the heart of the historic centre of Mao, Menorca.

Manor house from 1886 of 677 m² built without inhabiting since 1990, located in the heart of the historic centre of Maó.

The main property with an independent entrance is distributed over four floors, plus a large semi- lower ground floor and a terrace on the fifth floor with views of the port of Maó and the old town.

The first thing that catches your eye when entering the house is the spacious lobby with the imposing and wide stately staircase. The lobby leads us to different and spacious rooms, a bathroom, the kitchen and a bright courtyard . A door leads us to the semi- lower ground floor of approximately 200 m², with an courtyard and small windows to the street to let in natural light. It is divided and has several bedrooms.

Back in the lobby on the ground floor, the elegant staircase leads to the first floor. On this floor, we enter a lobby with access to several rooms, including one that looks like a large living room or a town living room plenary session with details on the ceiling and connected to other rooms. There is also a bathroom on this floor.

On the second floor, there are again several bedrooms and a wooden staircase behind one of these doors that leads to the third floor with several bedrooms. From here, on the third floor, some stairs lead us to several terraces on two levels with views of the historic center of the city, the old town and the port of Maó.

A historic property with many details in a beautiful location with many possibilities and great potential.
