OVERVIEW

3-bedroom apartment for sale in Malaga, in a completely renovated building with the original historical details.

The apartment is located on the second floor of a historic building with a lift, close to the traditional markets of the city of Malaga. Each floor of the building has a single dwelling.

From the apartment's entrance hall, we access the kitchen equipped with a window overlooking the interior patio and installation of mains gas. On the other side, we find a spacious living room with two balconies, the main bathroom and a bedroom with two balconies that are on the corner of the building.

This unique home has an additional living room with a balcony that could be converted into an additional bedroom or office. This also has access to the second bathroom that divides the next room into two additional bedrooms, one of them with its own balcony.

Do not hesitate to contact us for further information about this unique home.
