OVERVIEW

Property of 200 m², with classic architecture, high ceilings and mosaic floors located in the surroundings of the Central Market of Atarazanas and the Alameda Principal.

In one of the most emblematic buildings in Malaga we find this exclusive property, which has all the architectural characteristics of the middle of the last century.

The building only has two homes per floor, and the kitchen of this apartment was transformed into an office. It consists of seven bedrooms, two bathrooms and a huge living room that occupies the corner of the building.

Southeast facing, it has a lift. The façade covers two thirds of the building and continues to maintain its classic style. It is undoubtedly one of the few historic buildings waiting to be discovered and transformed into one of the most exclusive residences in the city of Malaga.
