OVERVIEW

15th century Moorish palace with two separate houses, an events hall, stables and a chapel.

This unique property includes a palace and two other smaller houses, surrounded by extensive ornamental gardens with a private chapel, tennis court, several large terraces, outside summer bar/eating area, a 30 ft spring-fed swimming pool (heated), dining hall in an old large converted olive oil press (used for events), tennis court, helicopter landing area, parking space for 25 cars all surrounded by magnificent unspoilt views of the hillsides and valley.

The palace has been elegantly and thoughtfully renovated so as to preserve its unique atmosphere and outstanding historical features, including some of the original furniture.

It has a spacious entrance hall with 300-year-old Sevillian wall tiles. Downstairs we find a cloakroom, a magnificent main drawing room with a central column, vaulted ceiling and original stone fireplace, library, day room, timber panelled dining room with seating for up to 24 people. There is a spacious country style kitchen with a walk-in crockery cupboard, laundry area, museum / games room with a pool table and an inner patio.

Currently run as a successful hotel. Ideal for investment or relocation with established business.
