Lucas Fox is pleased to present this fantastic villa, located in one of the most privileged areas of the city of Malaga, with infinite views of the sea.

The plot has a flat surface of 2,182 m² in the highest area of El Candado and has large green areas and a large swimming pool, which allows its owners to enjoy in this part of the house a contact with nature and leisure time with friends or family.

The surface of the main house is 419 m², with 6 bedrooms on two floors. In addition, it has an additional 123 m² that are intended for storage, parking and sports area, as well as a 55 m² apartment located outside. The layout provides an open kitchen, a small living room, a bedroom and a complete bathroom.

The ground floor of the house has a very large entrance hall that leads to the living room, with the integrated dining room and an area for an office-library. From these rooms, we can directly access the outdoor garden and pool area. This floor also houses a large kitchen with a dining area, pantry and laundry room with direct access from the garden. We will also find a courtesy toilet and a living room with a fireplace and also with access to the outdoor area.

The bedroom area and the service area are located on the upper floor, and it has 5 large bedrooms, two of them with private bathrooms, and another two complete bathrooms. The bedrooms have unique views of the sea, the mountains and the golf course.

We highlight the light in the rooms, the height of the ceilings, the quality of the materials used, especially in the wooden floors and stairs.

An ideal villa, if you are looking for privacy, security, exclusivity and unbeatable views of the sea. The house is built in an elevated area, to enjoy fabulous views of the entire bay of Malaga.
