OVERVIEW

Les than an hour from the Malaga airport, and 30 minutes from the beach, this is the perfect place to relax.

This magnificent property consisting of a hotel and a home for the owners is located in a 200-year-old old olive mill carefully restored to preserve the Andalusian charm and character, combining it with all modern comforts.

As you enter through the main entrance crossing the garden, the tranquility, calm and tranquility surround you. It is difficult to describe the contrasts of lights and colors, the caress of the breeze, the smells and that feeling of finding yourself in a place where you have always wanted to be. A unique place.

The effort and dedication with which its owners wanted to take care of every corner with great care is reflected in details such as the mosaic pieces brought from Morocco or in the old doors full of history.

The hotel has 14 double rooms, two lounges with fireplaces, a well-equipped industrial kitchen and a spacious studio with air conditioning. The studio can be used for painting, yoga, or other group activities. Outside there are several shady terraces, mature gardens and a swimming pool.

The spacious rooms are air conditioned and all have central heating or underfloor heating for the colder months. Beds in most rooms can be made with twin or super king beds

From its terraces there are panoramic views of the valley and the natural park.

And all this being just an hour's drive from Malaga airport.

Do not miss this opportunity! If you want to feel all the charm and potential of this property, do not hesitate to request more information and make an appointment you will be surprised.
