OVERVIEW

Original house from 1880, completely rebuilt in 2015 and with the classic characteristics of the façade for sale in the centre of Malaga.

This property is located in an extraordinary location, next to the enormous vertical garden that characterizes this square, surrounded by narrow streets and with little tourist traffic. Thus, the location enjoys silence and tranquility, but with everything you need nearby.

Behind the large entrance door, we have a lobby with access to an courtyard and three bedrooms, each with its own private bathroom. The property has access stairs to all its floors, with a large internal space, designed to be able to install a lift in the future, if desired.

On the first floor we have the large living room with a fireplace and three large windows with balconies that overlook the square, a large dining room for eight people and a wonderful fully equipped American-style kitchen, with a forklift to facilitate transportation to the terrace.

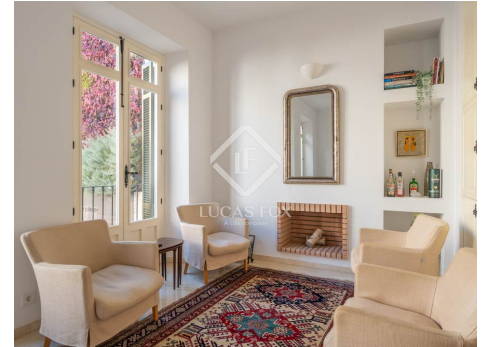

On the second floor we have the main bedroom that faces the exterior, with its large private bathroom and its own dressing room.

In the internal part with large windows to the patio we have another two bedrooms, used as an office and storage room.

Next, on the third floor, we have the roof, with a large terrace, with incredible views and distributed in two areas, one ideal for eating outdoors, with access from the elevator and another to enjoy the climatic phenomenon of Malaga.

Malaga, as one of the most vibrant cities on the Costa del Sol, is a tourist destination that offers a wide variety of options to enjoy. In addition to its mix of culture, history, sun and beach, the city has endless educational options for those families looking to provide their children with a quality education.

In this sense, Malaga is a city that has a wide educational offer in terms of high-quality international schools. Therefore, if you are a family looking for a quality education for your children, Malaga is an excellent option for you.
