OVERVIEW

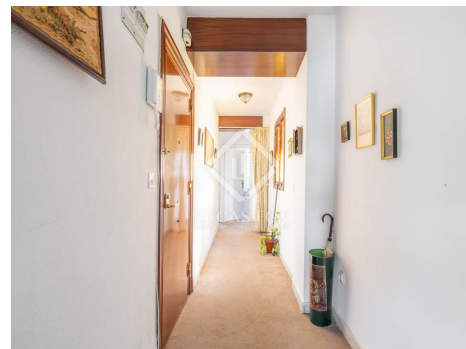

This apartment has a southerly aspect and incredible views of the park from the ninth floor. Equipped with two lifts, it also features a fantastic terrace for enjoying the local climate year round.

The living room is situated at the front of the property, while the kitchen is located at the back. The largest part of the property is on the southern exposure section and front of the home, comprising the living rooms, the property's terrace, two large bedrooms, and a large bathroom.

The ample sunlight that floods the living spaces in the southern part of the property is a crucial factor for those who enjoy a bright and airy living space. The south-facing terrace, offering stunning views of the surrounding area. At the back of the property we have another bedroom, bathroom and the kitchen with another smaller terrace.

Simply updating the property will result in a beautiful, sunny property to enjoy in this incredible cosmopolitan Mediterranean city. The property has tremendous potential and is an opportunity for those with some vision and eagerness to make their dream home.

Take advantage of this fantastic opportunity and contact us today to arrange a viewing.
