OVERVIEW

New build 3-bedroom penthouse apartment with 92 m² terrace for sale in West Malaga.

Lucas Fox is pleased to present Mane Residences, an exclusive private development located in a privileged location in Benalmadena. Thanks to its elevated location, each of its homes offers impressive views of the sea and the coast.

Thanks to the slope of the land, there are staggered homes whose large terraces take centre stage and allow the entry of abundant natural light, since the upper terraces do not cover the lower ones. The terrace of this property has glass railings, making the most of the views and spectacular sunlight.

This apartment is located on the second and final floor, offering an open-plan living area which makes the most of the space available. It is worth highlighting the very spacious living-dining room with the open-plan kitchen with a magnificent peninsula, ideal for enjoying pleasant evenings with guests or simply relaxing. The night area offers three double bedrooms and two bathrooms. The day area enjoys access to the fabulous terrace, ideal for sunset dinners or sunbathing.

Likewise, the property has a modern design, with furniture in neutral tones. All main rooms benefit from having large floor-to-ceiling windows, which allow in abundant natural light.

The best materials and finishes have been used, including porcelain floors from the Porcelanosa brand, LED lights and secure doors, among others. The kitchen and bathrooms are fully equipped; the kitchen, with Siemens furniture and Dekton countertop. For greater comfort, it includes air conditioning, with underfloor heating and air conditioning by fan coils, and domestic hot water fed by aerothermics, as well as aluminium carpentry with double glazing and an air chamber.

In addition, the Mane Residences development has various community areas with exclusive access for residents. Among them, we can highlight the landscaped common spaces that include a saline chlorination pool with an area for sun loungers and umbrellas, as well as a versatile multipurpose room.

At Mane Residences, you will enjoy more than 320 days of sunshine a year.
