OVERVIEW

Stunning 2-bedroom corner apartment located in the vibrant and historic centre of Malaga, brimming with natural light that illuminates each and every corner of the luxurious space.

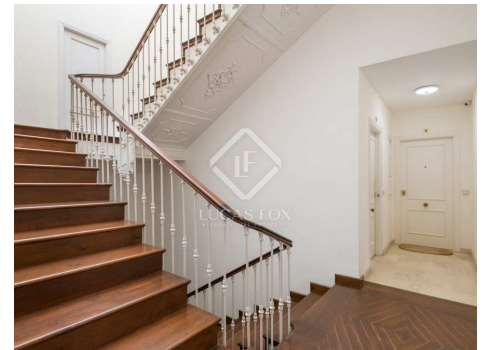

The apartment serves as one of the most pristine examples of the work of the renowned architect Geronimo Cuervo. The architectural brilliance is evident in its high ceilings, expansive windows, and five charming Juliette balconies. Adding to its grandeur is a beautiful stairwell adorned with intricate carvings and exquisite metalwork, showcasing the timeless elegance of Cuervo's designs.

Recently, the property has undergone a complete transformation, remodelled and reimagined to fit the needs of the modern dweller without losing its historical charm. It now boasts a fluid open-plan kitchen equipped with a functional island, and impeccably fashioned living spaces that exude warmth and comfort.

The home comprises two generously-sized bedrooms along with a resplendent living room featuring an integrated kitchen. Additionally, there is an extra nook that is perfect for setting up an office or a study, offering functional space for those who seek the extraordinary. A lavish bathroom with high-end fittings completes this unparalleled living experience.

However, this property is far more than just a dwelling. It is intricately woven into the rich tapestry of Malaga's history. The building, a protected marvel of architectural splendour, stands as a living tribute to Gerónimo Cuervo's genius, the creative mastermind behind the iconic Teatro Cervantes, whose elegant craftsmanship is seen throughout this home.
