La Moraleja is the quintessential residential luxury development since its development in the late 1970s. Since then, La Moraleja has been a melting pot of social and economic power ranging from businessmen, soccer players, artists and members of the high society. An enclave highly desired by those looking for unique residences that coexist with 950 hectares of pines and oaks.

The emblematic development is located 10 minutes from the centre of Madrid and the Barajas airport and enjoys very good communication by public transport.

The development has high security as it has entry and access controls, an alarm system connected to the Conservation Entity and 24-hour mobile patrols, which guarantees a high level of tranquility.
