OVERVIEW

Incredible 710m2 villa built on a 2525 plot with wonderful golf views.

Lucas Fox Moraleja presents this impressive new build property of 710m2 on a single plot of 2525m2 with incredible golf views.

Located in a privileged position within the development and with wonderful views of the golf, we highlight the wonderful finishes and materials with which it has been built.

The property has geothermal energy and photovoltaic solar panels and stands out for its abundant natural light and avant-garde design.

We are greeted by a very large hall leading to the large dining room living room with open kitchen with central island from which we have access to a large porch and the pool. These environments can be integrated thanks to the large windows it has.

We also have a guest toilet and several built-in wardrobes as well as a service area with an en-suite bedroom and laundry room.

This floor also offers us a wonderful suite with a terrace and independent entrance.

On the upper floor we have two wonderful suites and the master suite with a dream bathroom and large dressing room.

On the ground floor we have a very good garage with capacity for four cars, a storage room, the engine room and a multipurpose space.

The garden has several rooms and the property faces the golf course so we can enjoy wonderful and relaxing views.

The pool is infinity and has a very good size, very well oriented and located to be able to enjoy it to the fullest.

This property is located on a "private" dead- access street, with a double security check planned for access to it, which gives it double exclusivity.
