OVERVIEW

South-facing villa with exceptional panoramic sea, country and mountain views with a high level of privacy assured. Peace and tranquility in one of the most prestigious and sought after developments on the Costa de Sol.

This villa is located in a gated community with patrolled security and CCTV. The development is widely considered to be one of the finest to be found anywhere in Spain.

The villa was designed by the renowned architect Carlos Lamas. The design has been coupled with the highest of building standards and finishes. The attention to detail is extraordinary.

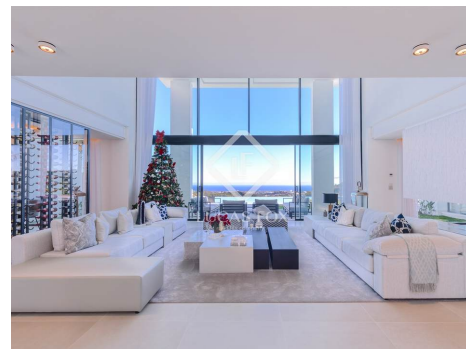

Electric gates lead to a parking area for multiple vehicles and a triple car port. The villa sits in a large plot surrounded by its own mature gardens.

The mature lower gardens are a delight and the those providing immediate access from the property are ideal for extensive entertaining. The 18m x 9m infinity pool is show stopping and has direct access from the main living areas. Adjacent to the pool is a sunken seating area with a large fire pit. The entrance porch leads to huge double doors with glazed surrounds to a reception area with a double height ceiling and galleried landing.

On entering the property your breath is simply taken away with the panorama that greets you. The huge sea and country views open up before you through the double height glassed façade.

From the lounge is direct access to a large partially covered terrace, the gardens and the pool. The lounge is cleverly divided from the spacious dining area by a glass wine bottle display cabinet.

To the other side of the lounge, also acting as a room divider from the kitchen/breakfast room, is a bioethanol feature fireplace. The fully fitted state-of-the-art Poggenpohl kitchen is simply stunning, boasting top-of-the-range Gaggenhau and Miele appliances, porcelain counter tops and a central island. The kitchen is dual aspect and has a wonderful dining area and an additional lounge. This is the true living hub of the property.
