OVERVIEW

Single storey colonial style luxury villa surrounded by beautiful gardens, including a private tennis court, located in quiet and private cul de sac and yet is only 5 minutes' walk from shops bars and restaurants.

This beautiful 5-bedroom villa has been fully renovated and decorated to the highest, most elegant standard and includes brand-new fittings throughout. The most impressive feature is the generosity of both space and light.

The natural light that floods into the house from all sides, starts with the impressive glass roofed entrance hall which then leads into a huge L shaped living area with surrounding terraces which overlook the pool and the expansive and yet totally private gardens. The bedrooms are located on both sides with the master on one side and the remaining 3 bedrooms on the adjacent side of the house. The massive kitchen is fully fitted with huge American style appliances and includes a large island with ample seating for 4 people.

All the rooms including the bedrooms and bathrooms are very generous in proportion and the house has a wonderful luxury feeling of elegance and complete privacy and security.

The house comes with a separate fully fitted guest or service house with an individual kitchenette, bathroom and living room.

The gated entrance is controlled by video cameras remote control access and leads to into an impressive courtyard with an additional 2-car garage.

Please contact us for further information regarding this beautiful colonial and yet modern style villa.
