€545,000 House / Villa - For sale - New listing

New build 3 Bedroom house / villa with 40m² terrace for sale in Casares

Elegant modern design property with spacious terraces, excellent orientation and light-filled interior spaces.

Lucas Fox presents Kristina Views, a development of 20 contemporary homes, created for those seeking a high-end residence that combines privacy, spaciousness, and a constant connection with the exterior. Located in the tranquil hills of Manilva, just minutes from Puerto de la Duquesa, this development enjoys a strategic position between the Mediterranean Sea, prestigious golf courses, and the main transport links of the Costa del Sol.

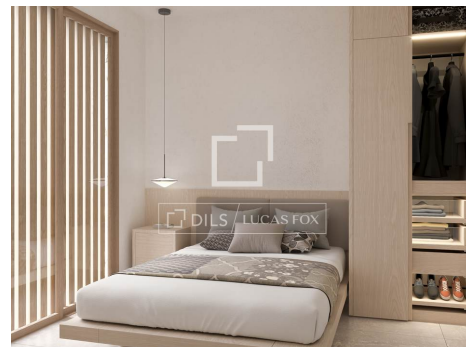

The homes stand out for their modern architecture, with clean lines and balanced proportions, perfectly integrated into their surroundings. The design prioritizes natural light and open views, thanks to large windows, double-height ceilings in some living rooms, and a carefully considered indirect lighting system that brings warmth and sophistication to the interior spaces.

Each property has been designed as a contemporary family-friendly residence, with spacious, functional and well-defined rooms, allowing you to enjoy both social life and privacy.

This particular property has an approximate constructed area of 129m², distributed across carefully designed spaces that combine spaciousness, balance, and functionality. It features a bright living-dining room, a fully equipped kitchen, a master suite that guarantees privacy and comfort, along with two additional bedrooms and two complete bathrooms.

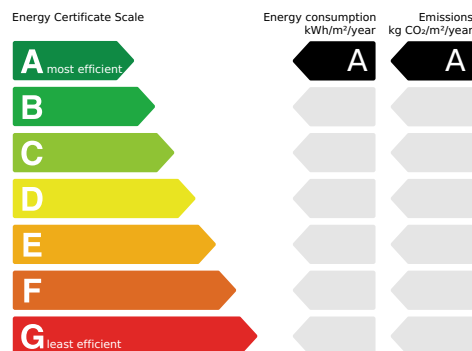

Kristina Views is located within a private development , with communal areas designed to foster a relaxed and social lifestyle. These include a communal infinity pool, a gym, landscaped gardens, and spaces designed for rest and well-being.
