OVERVIEW

Perfectly located building plots complete with beautifully designed project to build your own exclusive villas, set in an exclusive gated community.

In an exclusive gated community with panoramic sea views, we find these superb building plots for sale.

Buyers have the option to acquire a plot for a self built home or to use the services of an existing developer as project manager, with permits and plans already in place, thereby making great savings on the overall costs of the project.

The existing plans are for contemporary villas with a focus on creating a seamless connection between the pristine modern interiors and the beautiful surroundings. To do this, floor-to-ceiling windows shall be used, offering abundant light and panoramic views at every turn.

The open plan and flexible layout of the homes will provide free-flowing spaces with a distinctly contemporary and Mediterranean atmosphere. Outside each villa can have its own private garden with a swimming pool.

These luxury villas shall enjoy a superb location in El Herrojo, near the Quinta Golf Course, with great views and just a short drive away from San Pedro, the beach and Marbella.

Highlights

- Excellent, strategic location
- Plans and project manager available for modern villas with private gardens and swimming pools
- Panoramic views
- Great savings compared to average market prices
