OVERVIEW

3 bedroom apartment with 208m2 of gross area, 194m2 of useful area, in Boavista close to Hotels, Porto Portugal

Large 3 bedroom apartment with 208 m2 of gross area, located in a landmark building next to hotels.

This apartment is located in a development built by William Graham. His constructions made a difference due to the quality and solidity of construction and the architectural line that provides a good division of the house's spaces, with plenty of space and that outside, include common garden and leisure areas that give a very strong and unique identity to these ventures.

These developments and apartments continue to follow the evolution of current concepts and construction, making William Graham apartments and residential complexes highly sought after by families.

Specifically, this 3 bedroom apartment provides a very generous common room, with 4 distinct areas, with lots of light due to its East/South sun exposure.
