OVERVIEW

An excellent countryside house, completely renovated, preserving the house's unique style and essence. The renovation focused on integrating the house into an idyllic setting where tranquility and nature prevail above all else.

Lucas Fox presents Villa Maria, a house built in 1972 and completely renovated in 2024 to blend harmoniously with nature.

The house was set on a large 2,548m² plot , featuring leisure and recreation areas and native forest areas.

In terms of layout , the house is spread over two equal floors. On the upper floor , we find a large kitchen- dining room room and living room, where the central window of the dining room is the predominant feature of the room. Through the glass, you can appreciate nature in all its splendor, or if you prefer, you can open the window completely to make it disappear and enjoy nature firsthand.

If we follow the corridor leading to the bedrooms, we'll find two double bedrooms and one single bedroom, each with its own built-in wardrobe . In the centre of the corridor is the floor bathroom .

Going down the interior staircase we find a double bedroom en suite with a bathtub in the room, a large open-plan room with multiple uses and a kitchen with access to the exterior, perfect for use as an exterior kitchen and dining room .
