Mas Gimbernat – Majestic estate of over 35 hectares with three houses and an ancient mill in Santa Cristina d'Aro, just minutes from the beaches of the Costa Brava.

A historic 35-hectare building with three residences, an antique mill, and Mediterranean gardens in Santa Cristina d'Aro, just minutes from the beaches of the Costa Brava. A unique property that combines rural authenticity with contemporary comfort.

Nestled in the picturesque town of Santa Cristina d'Aro, just a few kilometers from the golden beaches of the Costa Brava, this unique property of 356,166 m² offers an unparalleled setting where nature and tradition coexist in perfect harmony. This sprawling building is a true natural paradise, with lush forests and carefully landscaped gardens, every corner exuding serenity and beauty.

The residential complex combines history, elegance and authenticity through three homes with their own personality:

- The main house, tastefully restored, is an architectural gem that combines spaciousness, light, and comfort. Its warm and sophisticated rooms invite you to enjoy long after-dinner conversations and unforgettable moments with family and friends.
- The former stable, masterfully transformed into a detached property, retains the rustic essence of its origins while incorporating all modern amenities. It features a private pool and a cozy porch, creating an ideal setting for relaxation and relaxation.
- The third house, still under renovation, offers enormous potential for creating new, bespoke spaces: from expanding the main residence to creating a new private retreat or a grand guesthouse.

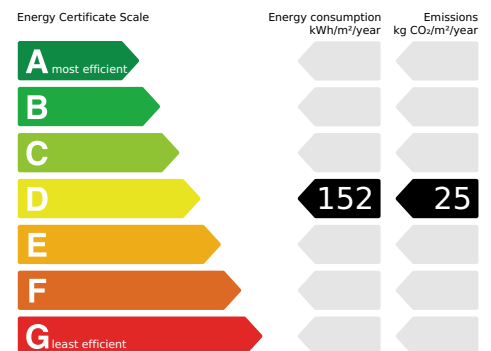

The two restored homes are fully equipped and currently adapted for high-end vacation rentals, offering privacy, comfort, and a beautiful natural setting.

In the gardens of the main house, an old mill stands as a testament to the past and adds a touch of historic charm to the setting. Beside it, the pool invites you to enjoy the Mediterranean sun and the silence of the countryside, in a space designed for relaxation, family time, and the pleasure of outdoor living.
