Port Vell Apartments

Amazing designer apartments in a new development in an extremely well refurbished building in the Gotico, Barcelona. Located on a very attractive street, just a short walk to the Port Vell and the beach of Barcelona.

In a building dating back to 1964, originally the headquarters of Barcelona's metallurgy guild, we find this elegant new development designed by the Turull Sorensen architectural studio, which has transformed the entire construction into a chic residential building with a garage in the basement, maintaining industrial period features and combining them with cutting-edge designer elements.

The new development consists of 20 apartments of a wide variety of surfaces and typologies ranging from 45 m² studio apartments to 2 and 3-bedroom properties of 75 to 120 m² and 3 stunning penthouse properties with fabulous terraces and great views. There are currently 4 properties still available for purchase. The Gotico neighbourhood of Barcelona is ideal for anyone looking to experience the authentic essence of Barcelona.

The materials used, the design of the properties to optimise space and light and the enviable location in Barcelona City make this one of the best new developments in the Catalan capital.
