OVERVIEW

One of 8 new build homes of 288 m², a modern design, unique architectural features, common areas and a beautiful garden.

Lucas Fox presents a new development in which special care has been taken to create family homes that enjoy privacy and unobstructed views. The development consists of 8 semi-detached houses, each with a private garden to enjoy privacy, in addition to the common areas.

This wonderful house is located in Aravaca, a privileged location and perfect for those looking for a modern family lifestyle. This area has excellent road access and is just 5 minutes from the entrance to Madrid and is well connected with public transport networks to travel easily and comfortably.

The complete price list and presentation with details on the quality of materials and accessories are available on request.

In this semi-detached house, equipped with large open spaces, good terraces and a 35 square metre independent garden, every detail has been taken care of. Changes can be made to personalise the space in this elegant, bright house with a good orientation to take advantage of natural light and make it more welcoming.

Do not hesitate to take advantage of this opportunity to create your own home.

Please contact us for more information and to organise a visit or a meeting at our offices.

Delivery due in Spring 2022.
