OVERVIEW

Exceptional new build luxury villa with avant-garde design in Somosaguas, one of the most exclusive urbanizations in Pozuelo de Alarcón, next to Casa de Countryside and just 12 minutes from the centre of Madrid

Lucas Fox Pozuelo presents one of the most avant-garde and exclusive villas in the Spanish capital.

The property is part of Somosaguas Natura, a promotion of 3 houses, for which the developer has brought together its brightest minds to work on a project with the best high-end family amenities never before seen in the area.

LICENSE GRANTED, WORKS HAVE BEEN STARTED.

This is signature architecture in one of the best locations in Pozuelo de Alarcón: the prestigious private development of Somosaguas.

The architects of this project are inspired by the essence of nature and the human being to achieve the balance, calm and inner peace that they desire in the property. They rely on the noblest and most organic materials, such as concrete, metal or glass, to offer simple but durable solutions and discover unexplored architectural elements that normalize the extraordinary.

An architecture that will not go unnoticed and whose design will be unique in the area. With concrete as the main reference, the houses are divided into three floors, with large spaces, large windows, special views and a unique layout, innovating with vertical and horizontal concrete walls in all their expression.

The developer has become a benchmark in the market thanks to its 200 projects created and 30 years of experience. Their commitment to attention to detail and the search for the best quality are their hallmark. Your mission: find the unexpected window in the right place. A construction company with a clear identifying stamp and opposite to everyday life that seeks uniqueness.
