Stunning family home with exceptional finishes. This beautifully renovated home comes with an independent 'casita' that has a further two bedrooms, its own kitchen and living space with an outdoor sauna to hand.

As we enter this splendidly modernized home, the elegant interior envelopes our senses. Surrounded by floor-to-ceiling windows at every turn, the natural beauty of Garraf park is all around.

The open plan kitchen and breakfast bar with access to the first of its two terraces is to our right with an elegant but informal dining area separating the split-level living area.

Through the kitchen door we find a sun-drenched terrace with jacuzzi and perfectly placed outdoor dining furniture to enjoy long summer lunches or indeed aperitivos at sunset taking in the views.

Walking to the back of the house on this the main ground level we find a large family bathroom and a double bedroom which is presently being used as an office. Carrying on along the hallway we enter the master bedroom.

The master bedroom connects seamlessly to its own walk-in dressing area and built-in wardrobes, followed by a large and inviting en-suite bathroom.
Descending the floating wooden staircase to the lower ground level we find two large and accommodating double bedrooms with their own high-end impeccably finished en-suite wet rooms. Both bedrooms enjoy endless views of the nature that surrounds the house with French sliding doors that open up to the garden.

The inviting pool and sundeck area is one of the most appealing aspects of this wonderful property. From the built in Barbeque and California style outdoor bar we look back at the house and see the precisely positioned panoramic window just behind the main front door and have the sensation of looking through the house to the forest and hills in the background.

From the far side of the pool we find a conveniently built bathroom and Scandanavian outdoor sauna.
