OVERVIEW

Detached house from 1895 to renovate, with precious original elements such as hydraulic floors and decorated ceilings, 4 bedrooms, a large garden, porch with chill-out area for sale in Esplugues, close to international schools and very central.

Lucas Fox presents this exceptional and elegant 484 m<sup>2</sup> house with an outbuilding built in 1895 on a 1,451 m<sup>2</sup> plot and surrounded by a large perimeter garden with trees. The building is protected for its historical and artistic value: it preserves the original ornate façade, as well as original decorative elements inside, such as hydraulic floors, ceilings with moldings and frescoes, carved woodwork, lamps and period furniture.

The house is presented to renovate, but it has exceptional potential to make it a property to suit you and combine it with the professional field. It is also ideal as the headquarters of companies or foundations.

The building is divided into two floors, a roof terrace and an adjoining shed, which with the appropriate renovation will achieve a very welcoming result full of personality. The luminosity and tranquility of its rooms stands out, all exterior. In addition, the house offers exclusive amenities such as a 1,176 m<sup>2</sup> perimeter garden with the possibility of building a pool, four bedrooms and three bathrooms. The attached body is ideal for use as a summer kitchen or additional rooms for guests.

The house is accessed through the garden at street level. The house is distributed over two floors. On the ground floor, with 4.15-meter-high ceilings, a porch gives access to the entrance hall with a staircase, a large office and a large space that stands out for its semicircular arches. This large room was used in its day as a wine cellar with its own production and offers various possibilities for new uses, according to the needs of each client, since it is at garden level and the currently bricked-up windows can be reopened. The entrance for cars and the garage are also located in this area. Next to the main house, there is an annex used in its day as the property of the landlords and a work area.
