€2,190,000 House / Villa - For sale - New listing

4-bedroom, 3-bathroom designer house/villa in excellent condition for sale in Sant Just Desvern with an outdoor pool, spa, independent garage, and 360° views of the city, mountains, and sea.

Lucas Fox presents this designer villa with 4 bedrooms, 3 bathrooms in excellent condition. This exceptional property is located on one of the largest private plots in the prestigious Bellsolig area, next to the Collserola Natural Park.

This property is much more than a property: it is the result of a comprehensive renovation carried out between 2020 and 2024, where every detail has been carefully considered to combine contemporary elegance, energy efficiency and maximum comfort.

Upon entering, you'll immediately notice the spaciousness and light that define its 4-5 bedrooms, designed to accommodate family-friendly life, remote work, or guest accommodations. The master suite becomes a true private sanctuary, with generous proportions and a serene atmosphere that invites complete relaxation.

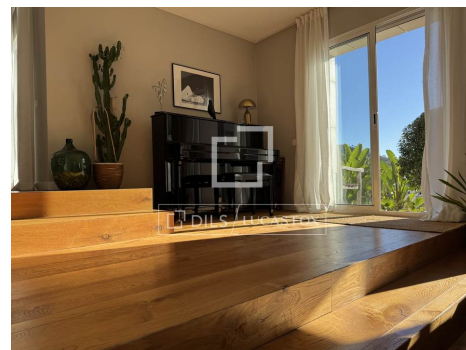

Exterior, the charm of the Mediterranean garden unfolds a harmony of textures and aromas: native vegetation, shaded areas and intimate corners that converse with the various terraces, perfect for breakfasts in the sun, dinners at sunset or meetings under the stars.

Well-being takes center stage thanks to the private pool and an exclusive wellness area with a steam sauna, creating a spa experience without leaving home. Here, every day can end with a moment of deep relaxation.

The property also stands out for its strong commitment to sustainability and technology. The 10 kWp photovoltaic system provides energy efficiency and autonomy, while the Vaillant hybrid heating system—which combines a heat pump with a hydrogen-ready gas system—ensures future-proof thermal comfort. It also features a wallbox for electric vehicles, facilitating responsible mobility.

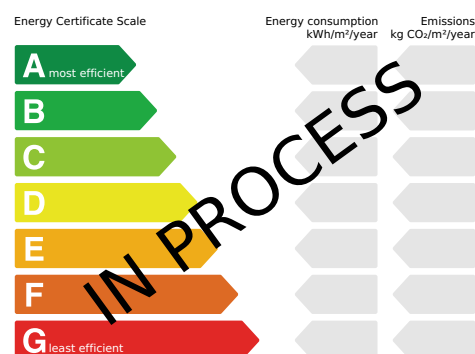

Security is guaranteed with an advanced alarm and camera system, offering complete peace of mind. And in terms of convenience, the property features a private garage plus additional parking, covering all space needs.

Overall, it is a residence where design, innovation and quality of life are integrated in perfect harmony, creating a home prepared for the present and the future.
