In the heart of Seville, between Plaza Nueva and Plaza de la Magdalena, you will find this magnificent and unique property consisting of 181 m² and two 24 m² patios, in a very quiet street, and within a short walk from places of tourist and cultural interest in the city.

Next to the kitchen there is an independent apartment consisting of a large open and bright space that is distributed as a living room-dining room-kitchen area and another area with the bedroom, bathroom and a space for office or reading.

The 60 m² apartment offers various options: it can be reattached to the house, it can be rented as a tourist home (since it has a valid licence), or for long-term rental, although it can also be adapted for use as a professional office or consultation with direct access to the street.

The characteristics of the property make it a perfect place to enjoy pleasant lunches or evenings outdoors with family or friends, in the two patios that are located at each end.

In this property, in addition to enjoying the magnificent main home, you have the option of enjoying the profitability provided by the holiday rental of a flat, which is currently being marketed since it has a valid licence, in the historic centre.
