A short distance from the residential area, you will find Mediterranean towns with a rich historical heritage. Among them, its capital, Tarragona, stands out, with its Roman archaeological complex. What was formerly known as Tarraco during Hispania Citerior (218 BC) is today a UNESCO World Heritage Site since 2000.

Other treasures of great beauty that enhance the cultural and gastronomic wealth of the area are the Ebro Delta Natural Park, the Sierra de Montsant Natural Park and the Priorat, a prestigious wine-growing area recognized internationally.

For the little ones, exciting and unforgettable experiences at Port Aventura World, Ferrari Land and two water parks await them within walking distance.

The city of Barcelona or its airport are located 1 hour by car and 20 minutes by AVE.
