€995,000 Penthouse - For sale - New listing

Penthouse with 360° views, a private terrace, exclusive amenities and direct outlook to City of Arts and Sciences

A sky-high residence designed for those who want it all, light, privacy, architecture, and lifestyle. This penthouse unites panoramic city views with a serene sense of exclusivity, in one of Valencia's most desirable modern buildings.

The penthouse opens to the city with each window framing a shifting panorama, from the curves of the Ciudad de las Artes y las Ciencias to the line where the sea begins.

Inside, the atmosphere is quiet and composed. Natural materials and modern forms coexist, and light moves freely through the rooms from morning until evening. The open kitchen combines utility and clarity of design, maintaining an unobstructed connection with the surrounding views.

Entering the building, we are welcomed by a 24-hour concierge or access your home directly through a more private lift.

As the doors open on the 19th floor, we step on to the exclusive landing.

From the moment we enter, our eyes are drawn to the breathtaking views stretching across the city. To the right, the open living room connects with the terrace and the modern designer kitchen, a bright, airy space ideal for both relaxation and entertaining.

To the left, the night area unfolds. First, we pass a stylish bathroom and a comfortable guest bedroom before reaching the main suite, a private retreat that feels like its own apartment. It features a cosy office corner, a covered balcony perfect for reading or morning coffee, and a spa-inspired bathroom with a large walk-in shower and jacuzzi-style bathtub, creating a complete haven of serenity.

The terrace provides a private outlook above the city, a place where we can enjoy the sunrise over the Turia and the reflection of evening lights.

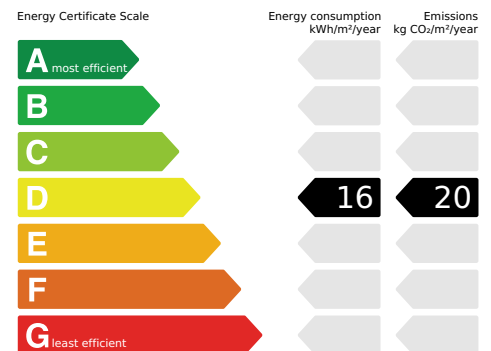

Shared facilities include a gym, sauna, swimming pool, and gardens, arranged to create a setting that balances openness and retreat.
