Excellent 6 Bedroom house / villa for sale in Los Monasterios, Valencia

Luxury and attention to detail are embodied in their finest expression in this Provençal-style property with 180° views of the sea and mountains

The owners chose two plots in the upper part of the Monasterios Development for the construction of this Provençal-style house, excavating the mountain rock and making the most of the extraordinary 180° views over the sea and the mountain.

Luxury and attention to detail are embodied in their highest expression in this property.

Everything has been carefully chosen, from the materials and construction project to the exterior and interior design elements, many of them with handcrafted finishes.

Appliances from brands like Gaggenau or Sub Zero, Murano lamps and wall lights, volcanic lava on kitchen countertops, old pine wood on floors, doors and windows, and even an original mural by a renowned painter on one of the living room walls would be examples of a long list of qualities and features that add great value to the property, difficult to find elsewhere.

The same is true exterior ; cluster palm trees, centuries-old olive trees, fruit trees, and other species have been selected and placed in the right location, as well as the use of a staircase sculpted from red sandstone, masonry, etc.

The property is being sold with almost all of the furniture included in the price.

From the street we can access the elevator that can take us to each and every one of the four levels of the property

The main floor is clearly differentiated between the day area and the night area.

The day area features a large living room with different atmospheres, a fireplace and spectacular sea views thanks to its large central window

The dining area occupies a special space in a vaulted room with a painted mural and views of the mountain rock.

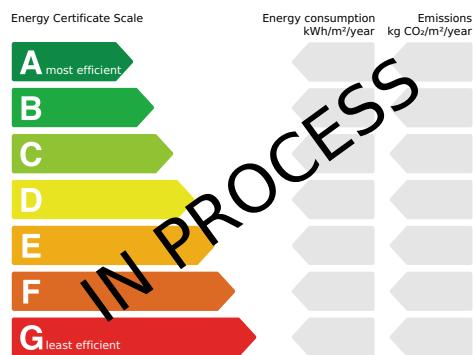

The kitchen is spacious, including a dining area and ample room for laundry room and ironing, a guest bathroom and storage space

On this same floor and with direct access from the dining room or kitchen we have a spectacular porticoed terrace with incredible views of the horizon where you can enjoy the sea and the mountains at any time of day.

In the night area we find a layout of three bedrooms, all of them with their own integrated bathroom and large wardrobes.

The upper floor is entirely occupied by the master bedroom, with a full bathroom including shower and whirlpool tub, a spacious dressing room, fireplace, terrace and fantastic sea views from the bed itself.

The ground floor comprises a kitchen that also serves the pool and barbecue area, a full bathroom with shower, two bedrooms, as well as a well-maintained wine cellar and a fantastic games room with a pool table currently occupying the centre of the room

On the floor floor we find the garage, with capacity for three large vehicles, as well as several storage spaces

The exterior area is fully landscaped and perfectly maintained, with a barbecue area with a wood-fired oven, fully equipped next to the pool

The gardens ascend via a path to the top of the plot where the views of the sea and the mountains are even more impressive, if that's possible.
