OVERVIEW

Elegant and spacious apartment, with a favorable layout , two independent entrances, a private terrace, high ceilings and plenty of natural light, in good condition and very well located for sale in Vigo, Pontevedra.

Lucas Fox presents this fantastic completely renovated apartment for sale in one of the most central streets of Vigo.

This elegant and spacious apartment, with two independent entrances, has a very functional layout , with high ceilings, abundant natural light and is presented in perfect condition to move into. The first stones of La Finca date back to 1952.

A beautiful and bright entrance hall, with high and decorative ceilings takes us to the main room of this wonderful apartment: the living room, a space with lots of natural light and a lot of charm. This bright room is ideal, with a contrast of the exposed stone with the high ceilings and herringbone floors.

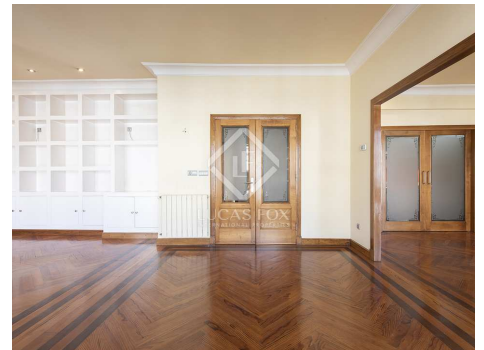

This area benefits from large oak Climalit windows that allow in abundant natural light. Right next door, another room could be used as a dining room area. Sliding doors lead us to a modern, fully equipped kitchen, with an island and plenty of storage space. Right next door, there is a separate laundry room area.

This beautiful apartment consists of five spacious bedrooms, with built-in wardrobes and plenty of natural light, as well as three bathrooms. The main bedroom has a dressing room and bathroom and access to a private terrace, while enjoying plenty of natural light.

The floor is made of Canary Island pine with a century-old trunk.

The option of purchasing a parking space is offered, which is not located on the same building.

This apartment is ideal for a young family with children, who wants to have access to all the amenities or for an older couple, as it has access for people with reduced mobility. It would also be ideal for any investor, since it could be used for rental or business, since this property has two independent entrances.
