OVERVIEW

Building with the possibility of carrying out a unique project and with a special architecture for sale in Pazos de Borben, Pontevedra

Construction of this fantastic and exclusive Indiano-style house began at the beginning of 1915. As can be seen, the stonework and dedication are unique and unrepeatable and make this property very special. La Finca is located in the Redondela area. It offers fantastic views of the valley and total privacy, given its location.

On La Finca there are two buildings: the Indian house and another typical Galician L-shaped house with two floors and a patio. These two buildings are presented completely to be renovated; In fact, although the Galician house is inhabited in the summer months, it needs renovation and updating.

The stately entrance of the main house, the Indiana, is accessed by some majestic stone stairs, with two beautiful columns that offer a sample of what we can find at an architectural level. The facade is full of ornaments, with a great architectural expression with unique symbolic elements; a unique stonework.

Upon entering, there is a beautiful and bright entrance hall with stairs that divide this property into two floors. On the ground floor, we find a spacious and sunny living room, with high ceilings and original doors of the time. Next to the living room, there is also a bedroom that could be used as a study. On this same floor, there is a large kitchen, very bright and with beautiful views. It should be noted that you can enjoy the beautiful views from most spaces of this magnificent house. There is also a spacious bedroom, with a small wrought iron balcony and a bathroom on this same floor.

The first floor houses the bedroom area. In this area of the house, there are four good-sized bedrooms, with uniquely designed stone-worked balconies and three bathrooms.

This building also has a large basement and an attic.
