OVERVIEW

An outstanding villa, very well built, excellent distribution, lovely hilltop views and a nice garden with swimming pool located a short distance from Vigo city centre.

This property is located in El Viso, to the North East of the city of Vigo and just a few minutes from the town of Redondela. It is a house with a unique design, built with the best materials and finishes available and surrounded by nature.

The property sits on a plot measuring 1,500 m² with two defined sections. The front part has the swimming pool and an area with an ample porch from where the views are unique. The back of the plot has a garden and a barbecue annex.

We enter the house and into a distribution area, to its right we find the kitchen, fully equipped, and the dining room area, and to the left an ample living room with wide windows, lots of sunlight and beautiful views.

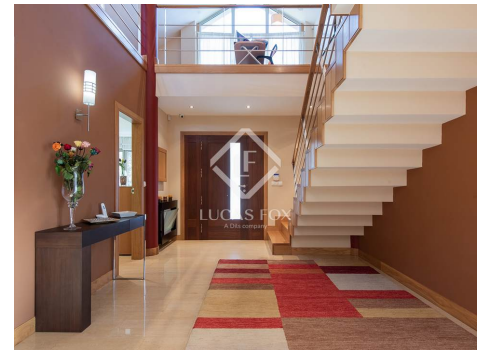

The distribution area connects with the main sleeping area where we find three bedrooms, two of them en-suite facing the front and back of the house.

The upper floor of the house is reached using a staircase next to the entrance, it has an open layout with two ample office spaces that give into the living room area down below. In this level we have the main bedroom, very spacious, with a long walk-in closet and a full bathroom with a jacuzzi, and views. The main bedroom has a terrace that, given the location of the property high on a hill, commands outstanding almost 360-degree views of the landscape with its rolling hills, wooded areas and nearby villages.

From the kitchen area there is another staircase leading to the basement where we find a cellar, an ample laundry room, lots of storage space and parking space for three vehicles.

In the back of the house there is a building measuring approximately 40 m² with a large barbecue area and dining room.

This property is well suited for a couple or growing family as a primary or secondary residence.
