OVERVIEW

A property located in a beautiful and unique area, surrounded by woodland, views of the landscape, and four good-sized bedrooms. It has a lovely garden area with a swimming pool. Located at a short distance from beautiful beaches

This is a fantastic property located in Aldea Coruxido, a quiet area surrounded by woodland, not far from the city of Santiago de Compostela to the northeast and the estuary of Muros to the west.

The property comprises a main house with 4 bedrooms, three bathrooms and 190 square metres of surface with a large plot measuring 3,500 square metres surrounded by woodland and stunning views of the countryside.

All exterior walls in this house are beautifully finished with exposed stone. There is a large barbecue area under the shadow of vines and a swimming pool from where to enjoy the best views of the rolling hills.

There is a gated entrance giving access to an ample parking area which is partly covered. A set of stairs takes us up to a large terrace and to the main entrance to the house. Once inside we find a small entrance hall with a large living and dining room area to the right and a fully equipped eat-in kitchen to the left. The living room is warmed up with a wood-burning fireplace. Next to it, we find a bedroom with its en-suite bathroom.

From the hall, we take a set of stairs up to the sleeping area. Once upstairs, we find three large bedrooms connected by a long corridor and two bathrooms. All the rooms have windows facing and with views to the countryside.

There is an empty barn structure behind the main house with the potential to build approximately 200 m² of liveable surface.

This property will be suitable for a family or a couple looking to enjoy a relaxed lifestyle inland and close to the Rias Baixas. Also, entrepreneurs or investors interested in purchasing the property that is actually run as a small guest house or Bed & Breakfast, and generates a generous income particularly during the months of Summer.
