OVERVIEW

Beautiful rural house with three buildings, with rustic architecture and views for sale in a natural environment in Armenteira, Pontevedra

Lucas Fox presents this beautiful restored house, made of typical Galician stone, with two bedrooms and fantastic views. It is located in a natural environment in Pontevedra and consists of a constructed area of 196 m² with a very well-maintained plot of almost 2000 m².

On the ground floor, this charming rural house consists of a practical rustic kitchen with a beautiful design, with stoneware floor and direct access to a covered porch or patio, a fantastic area for summer nights and with beautiful views of the pool and to the granary. Through some spiral stairs located in a corner of the kitchen, we will access the upper floor, an area where we will find a very cozy, charming, rustic living-dining room with a large window with beautiful views, as well as an ideal reading or relaxation area. Also on this floor we find two bedrooms, a dressing room and a bathroom.

In another stone building attached to the main house, we find an independent studio, fully equipped and currently dedicated to an study and bedroom area. We will also find a bathroom, a laundry room and another room where the boiler is currently installed.

In another independent building in the upper part of La Finca, we will find a large bedroom and bathroom, ideal for the independence of guests and family or as a leisure area. The views are fantastic.

This plot has a beautiful swimming pool, a granary, a well and a very beautiful and well-kept garden, on different levels. The views are fantastic and La Finca has privacy.

This wonderful property would be ideal as an investment to undertake a rural tourism activity, or for a young couple who wants to enjoy a natural and quiet environment and at the same time with easy and quick access to all the amenities of a city.
