OVERVIEW

Fantastic 3-bedroom house with beautiful views, ready to move into, for sale in the Beade-Ribadavia area. There is the possibility of buying more land.

This beautiful stone house is located in the O Ribeiro area, very close to the old historic city of Ribadavia, famous for its vineyards, culture and history. The property is completely renovated but has a rustic and modern character. It offers unique spaces and a fantastic layout.

The property is accessed through a courtyard surrounded by flowers and is very charming. Upon entering, on the left, there is a beautiful stone fireplace typical of Galicia called lareira. Together with the stone floor, this gives it a rustic atmosphere that contrasts with parts of the property with a more modern style, such as a spacious and bright fully equipped kitchen with access to a front garden.

We find two spacious areas on this floor, separated by a large glass door that allows for plenty of natural light and a sense of openness. One of these spaces houses the lareira, the kitchen, part of the living-dining room, and a toilet. On the other side of the glass door, a fantastic staircase leads to the upper part of this charming house and the living room area, with a large table and access to an incredible balcony with beautiful views of the valley and vineyards. All spaces are generously proportioned, ensuring a comfortable living experience.

On the upper floor, we find an open living area to relax in, with three bedrooms, two of which have private bathrooms. It should be noted that in one of the bathrooms, an old stone oven is kept as a work of art. Two of these bedrooms have access to a balcony with beautiful views and lots of natural light.

The harmony of natural stone, wood, and unique architectural elements, along with the owners' design touch, creates a truly captivating space throughout the house. The heating is individual, with a pellet stove on the main floor and the stone fireplace adding to the charm and comfort of the property.

This exclusive property has two patios, one front and one rear.
