€800,000 Country house - For sale

A charming Galician-type country house with a large private plot of 4 hectares for sale in Cesantes-Redondela, Pontevedra

A charming country house, over 200 years old and boasting a 40,000 m² private property, offers a rich history, exclusivity, and the potential for a unique project, just a short distance from the city centres of Vigo and Pontevedra.

In the heart of Redondela, Spain, stands a charming country house with more than two centuries of history, a unique property that combines the strength of Galician tradition with extraordinary potential for the future.

The property, situated a short distance from the cities of Vigo and Pontevedra, offers considerable potential for its future buyers, whether for a rural guesthouse or a large luxury estate.

Built in stone, with its original staircases and architecture that commands respect and elegance, this country house transcends the idea of a home. It is not just a house: it is heritage, a legacy, and a way of life. Every wall holds stories, every room preserves the essence of generations who have passed through its halls and gardens.

The surrounding estate, spanning over 40,000 m² of land, offers endless possibilities. Its extensive green areas allow for the design of private gardens, relaxation areas, or exclusive spaces where nature and history intertwine. The fertile land offers opportunities for agricultural or wine tourism projects, while the property's size and uniqueness make it the perfect setting for a high-end tourism, hotel, event, or luxury estate project.

This country house is not just a property for sale, it is a unique opportunity for those seeking more than just a property: a symbol of exclusivity, history, and potential. The property offers tranquility and charm in its private land. The buildings and garden areas need a complete update.

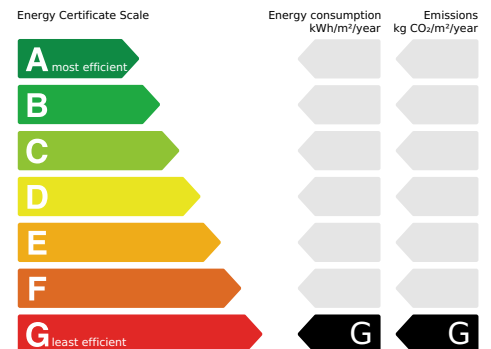

We advise future buyers to consider consulting an architect and design firm to help them take advantage of this unique property and restore its lovely feel. Lucas Fox provides a list of contacts who are willing to assist with this project.
