A seafront villa unique with views of San Simón Island and the Rande Bridge for sale in Redondela, Pontevedra

This one-of-a-kind villa offers a rare privilege: direct access to small coves from its private garden and uninterrupted panoramic views of the sea, the historic San Simón Island, and the iconic Rande Bridge.

A refuge with soul, history, and eternal views in Rande

On the peaceful and evocative coast of Rande, just 15 minutes from Vigo Airport and perfectly connected to the Redondela AVE station, lies this architectural gem of over 400 square meters, spread over three floors and surrounded by a history that permeates every stone. With privileged views of the magical island of San Simón and the Vigo Estuary, this property is not just a house: it's a refuge for the soul.

Built with Galician stone over 50 years ago, its façade has stood the test of time, a testament to its solidity and character. Surrounded by Mediterranean gardens and relaxation areas, a pool stands out, visually blending with the blue sea, creating a contrast that is as striking as it is relaxing.

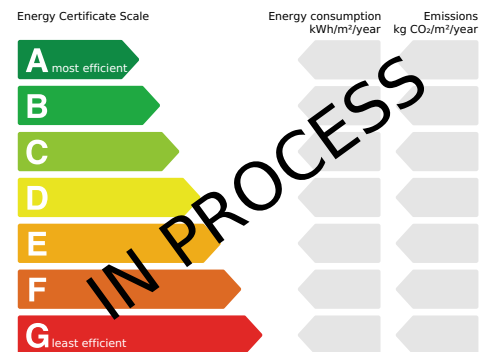

Upon entering, the foyer leads us to a spacious and bright living room, where the panoramic view of the sea enters through the windows as if it were part of the furniture. On each of its three floors, the rooms open onto the ocean, offering increasingly impressive views.

One of the most special corners of this home is its large covered porch, where you'll find an outdoor dining area accompanied by a traditional barbecue grill. Imagine long summer after-dinner conversations with friends, with the aroma of the sea mingling with that of grilled seafood, while the sun sets over the estuary and dyes the sky golden. This space, more than an extension of the house, is an invitation to live slowly, outdoors, and surrounded by beauty.

Ideal as a family residence or as a retirement home with a Galician essence, this property combines history, location, and landscape. A place where the calm of the sea and tradition embrace to offer you an authentic life.
