OVERVIEW

An excellent well-built seafront property for rent in the beachside town of Cangas, offering a stunning location, views, a large plot, a nice open layout and a fantastic outdoor entertaining area.

In Cangas, we find this fabulous seafront property for rent with a contemporary open layout and interior design, on a lovely private plot measuring a total of 6,500 m².

Upon arriving at the property, we are welcomed by a large gate that gives us access to the villa's grounds. Once inside, we are greeted by the well-kept front garden area.

Inside, we enter the main floor, which divides the space into the living and sleeping area. We have the open-plan kitchen, dining and living area overlooking the front garden. There is a lovely exterior porch on the front side of the villa to enjoy dinners and lunches with family and friends, offering stunning views. The kitchen is equipped with high-quality appliances and finished with top-quality carpentry. In the living room area, we find the original stone fireplace.

The sleeping area is towards the back side of the villa. All rooms offer built-in wardrobes and lots of natural light. Two bedrooms share a common bathroom and the main suite. All sanitaryware and taps are finished with high quality and luxury standards. The villa offers plenty of storage space.

Upstairs we find a large lounge section, which can be converted into an office, library or study.

Outside, we find the grounds with many open spaces, terraces and porches.

The property would be ideal for a family looking to lease the property for a long term stay, or anyone looking to enjoy the summer season with friends and family.
